What is the IBA About?

Encouraging Kids! All kids mature and develop in different ways and at different times. We want to teach kids how to play basketball for fun and help them form good character while playing. We exist to help ALL kids receive expert coaching and playing time needed for improvement. We take a hands-on approach to reach out to kids and provide them with a nurturing environment to learn & enjoy the game of basketball. Their character development is critical to us, as this yields life-long benefits.
